OFFICIAL NOTES.

THE HALIFAX INFIRMARY CUP.

The following is an extract from a letter recently received from the secretary of the above Institution. "That the best thanks of this Committee be given to the Huddersfield Rugby League Football Club for allowing their team to play in the match at Halifax on Saturday, August 23rd last, in aid of the Royal Infirmary."

"The sum of £314 os. 3d. has been handed to the Infirmary as the result of the above match."

time passes all too quickly for most of us. This month will see decided the destination of the Yorkshire and Lancashire Cups respectively. Then our thoughts will be turning towards the big event of the year. We can best anticipate the Cup Final day by 'voting for Wembley' here and now. The first step is to call in the Pavilion before or after this afternoon's match, when Mr. R. W. Kettlewell will be in attendance, ready to supply all particulars concerning the special trip to London, to be run by the Supporters' Club. We, in Huddersfield, as representing our great traditions, must see to it that 'Fartown' is to the fore at Wembley.

If this is illustrated on the field of play there will be no need to search for the 'claret and gold' colours among the crowd that day. We shall have a following second to none.

To really play our part in helping make the Cup Final a great success, we must be there even if our team unhappily fail in the progress of elimination. Remember, the prestige of the Rugby League must be upheld by we Northerners that day. Let the game be the first consideration and the Club interests second if needs be, and there will be no fear then of the result from an attendance point of view. Reference to the Cup Final will find a prominent place in our programme notes from time to time.

THE CLUB MEMBERSHIP.

We are still enrolling new members under the special terms as set forth elsewhere in our programme. We are well over the 2,400 mark at the present time, but our aim is to reach the 2,500 this season. If you haven't yet 'joined up' do so this afternoon. A call at the office, in the Pavilion, will find our secretary, Mr. C. L. Reynard, very glad to see you.

FREE GIFTS

All kinds of useful and attractive presents are offered to Chairman Juniors smokers. This Valet Razor outfit is just one of them. The others are shown in the Chairman Juniors Free Gift Book. Get a copy from your Tobacconist, or from the makers.

No equal priced cigarette can compare with Chairman Juniors for quality—no equal quality cigarette can compete in price. The reason for Chairman Juniors supremacy lies in the makers' 60 years' experience of blending quality tobaccos. This experience, allied to modern methods of manufacture, produces in Chairman Juniors a cigarette that is in a class of its own at the price.

Every day more and more thoughtful smokers turn to Chairman Juniors. They are realising the wastefulness of paying so much more for other quality cigarettes—and getting so little extra in return. Have YOU realised it yet? Try a packet of Chairman Juniors to-day and you will.

of an injury sustained at Halifax in the Senior Competition match. In spite of the above withdrawals a strong team was chosen, and one which we hope has continued our sequence of League victories.

Neither can we, for Press reasons, make any reference to happenings at Fartown on Saturday last, when our Reserves entertained the hitherto unbeaten 'Trinity' Reserves. We hope our lads have proved that their doughty opponents can be beaten, and that one of the best games seen at Fartown for some time past took place.

TO-DAY'S SEMI-FINAL.

The news that we were drawn at home with Wakefield as our opponents in the Yorkshire Cup Semi-final tie caused much satisfaction locally. The decision to play the match on a Monday afternoon, and thus follow the recent precedent created in the Featherstone second round tie played at Fartown a fortnight ago to-day, was made after consultation with the Wakefield Committee. In both camps it was agreed that the prospect of a good 'gate' would be enhanced by this choice of day. We realise we cannot meet the convenience of all our followers, but in adopting the course taken we feel sure it will meet with the approval of the big majority. Given a fine afternoon we confidently expect the attendance at the Featherstone match to be considerably exceeded to-day.

We need not say that we expect to win through to the Final. This does not imply for one moment that to-day's task will be an easy one. Even if victory was ours at Belle Vue on Saturday, Wakefield will still take some beating in a Cup-tie. The old 'Trinity' Cup fighting spirit will be in evidence, and ground advantage may just turn the scale in our favour.

THE CRICKET SECTION.

The Annual Dinner will be held at the Huddersfield and County Conservative Club on Friday evening, November 14th. The event is being looked forward to with pleasure, particularly on account of the successful season, culminating in the winning of the Huddersfield and District League Championship by our premier team.

THE BOWLING SECTION.

Here again the past season has proved very successful in every way. A handsome profit has been realised on the year's working, and this has been wholly devoted towards defraying the cost of the recent enlargement of the Bowling Pavilion. It is hoped, in two or three year's time, to be in the happy position of being free from debt in the matter above referred to.

SATURDAY'S BIG ATTRACTION.

With St. Helens as our visitors this week-end we are looking forward to a great game. The 'Saints' are one of the most attractive teams in the League. Among their players are men whose names have become almost a household word in Rugby League circles. Like our own club, the penalty of greatness has found the 'Saints' called upon to sacrifice club interests for those of County and International claims at times when vital issues have hung in the balance in League matches.

Leslie Fairclough, the 'Saints' captain and brilliant 'Stand-off' half, recently took his well earned benefit. To his great credit, he very unselfishly requested that the occasion should be made a joint affair, and the 'joint' in this instance was the inclusion of his 'scrum' partner, Groves, in the participation of the benefit. Kindly acts such as these speak volumes for the sporting qualities of players like Fairclough, and tend to lift the status of the professional footballer above a purely mercenary plane.

We very cordially welcome the St. Helens team, their Directors and followers to Fartown on Saturday next. It has been our regret that circumstances in recent seasons have prevented the arranging of League Fixtures. We still recollect the wonderful reception afforded our team in the 'Pill' town in the days when Wagstaff captained our team at the height of its power. We feel sure our own following will give the 'Saints' an equally hearty welcome. If we are beaten we shall not be backward in bestowing congratulations upon our Lancashire rivals.

TO-DAY'S "CLUES."

1. A Huddersfield Player.—Though abbreviated to begin with you will find my complete name in following up this clue.
2. An Advertisement.—The line under in the advertisement commences my first line. For the next clue is contained in the next word. (To get the 'hang' of this, first fill in the missing commas).
.....
3. A Wakefield Player.—Take away three parts of my name and what is left does not look at all singular.
4. An Advertisement.—Father leads the way. The 'young hopeful' who follows doesn't need twice inviting.
.....
