The date of Harold Wagstaff's last appearance at 'Fartown' was Easter Tuesday, April 14th, 1925.

Douglas Clark's last match was on March 23rd, 1929.

Ben Gronow finished his playing career at Fartown on September 1st, 1928.

It was in season 1919-20 that 'Ben' broke his own previous goal kicking record by kicking 147 goals.

Albert Rosenfeldt's 80 tries in season 1913-14 still stands as an individual record in Rugby League football.

Huddersfield v. Hunslet (14-16) Supporters' teams.

OFFICIAL NOTES.

Whatever arguments may be advanced against the present system of deciding the Rugby League Championship, we, at Fartown, at any rate, have had cause to appreciate its 'virtues' during recent seasons. To-day finds our team occupied in the Supplementary Competition for the third time in four consecutive seasons, with Hunslet, on this occasion, our opponents in the Semi-final. We remember, with pleasure, the Semi-finals witnessed on our ground when Salford supplied the opposition in seasons 1928-9 and 1929-30. How, after defeating the 'Reds,' we went on to win the Championship by defeating Leeds on each occasion.

To-day affords a parallel with the first named season in the fact that we again head the League. We are hoping that history will repeat itself in the successful accomplishment of our ambitions this season.

This afternoon's encounter with Hunslet (placed 4th) is particularly interesting by reason of the way in which fate has brought us up against the Parkside's this season. Nor can we, except in our defeat of Hunslet in the Yorkshire Cup Final, extract much satisfaction from the series. In the two League games we had to acknowledge defeat, while later, our Challenge Cup ambitions went by the board in that memorable 1st round tie, at Parkside, on February 6th.

On these occasions we gave our Hunslet friends full credit for victories well won. This afternoon we are hoping the 'boot will be on the other leg.' If so, we know Mr. Joe Leuthwaite and his co-officials will be just as ready to repeat that splendid sporting 'gesture' of theirs which followed our Yorkshire Cup Final victory. While in this strain, we take the opportunity of congratulating Hunslet upon the winning of the Yorkshire League Cup this season. We had ambitions in that direction ourselves, but we couldn't just muster sufficient League points to beat Hunslet's total, and so 'Parkside' won 'on the post.'

We hope this afternoon's big event will be favoured with fine weather, in which case the great interest aroused will be reflected in a capital 'gate.' Like ourselves, our visitors have supplied one player (i.e., White, their 'hooker') for the Touring team. They may also have to mourn the absence of Dawson, their Captain, who sustained severe injuries in the match with Hull Kingston last week.

At the time of penning these notes, the exact constitution of our own team is uncertain. Towill and Thompson were injured in the Swinton match, and thus joined Tiffany and 'Bob' Walker on the casualty list. Sherwood is completing his term of suspension, and probably Morton may be commencing his 'rest cure' to-day.

Trainer Joe Withers will have done all humanly possible towards ensuring an 'all fit' report, and we hope his efforts, assisted by hearty co-operation of the players concerned, will enable us to field a strong and thoroughly sound thirteen.

And now the stage is set for a renewal of the strife. May the better side gain the day, and may that side, on this occasion, be the wearers of the 'Claret and Gold.'

Lack of space precludes anything but the briefest of references to the work of our first team this season. We congratulate Mills and his men upon the many fine performances in the League, culminating in their coming out on top once more. The winning of the Yorkshire Cup was accomplished practically on 'foreign soil.'

Morning and Evening Papers Delivered.

Only in the Semi-final re-play with York was Fartown the scene of operations. We wish our players the best of luck in their effort to bring the Rugby League Championship back to Fartown.

We are pleased to be able to record a happy relationship between our players throughout the season. A similar spirit of mutual co-operation and good will has also been in evidence between players and the Football Sub-Committee all the way through.

We congratulate our first team Captain, 'Ernie' Mills, upon his securing over 50 tries this season, and we hope 'Len' Bowkett will reach his 100 goals this afternoon. One will do it, though he needn't stop at that!!

'Programme Habit.' And to each one of our Advertisers we would say 'Thank you' once again. We take this last opportunity of asking all 'Fartowners' to remember our advertising friends during the close season.

The closing League victories over Swinton, at Fartown (a re-arranged match), and Batley, at Mount Pleasant, enabled our men to retain their 1 point lead over the 'Saints,' and thus head the League at the close. The evening visit of the 'Lions' drew a very good attendance, and a capital game was witnessed. With a very much weakened side, Swinton put up splendid opposition. The final score was 11 points to nil. Mills, Bowkett and Richards scored a try each, and Bowkett kicked 1 goal.

A closer 'call' was that at Mount Pleasant, with the score 11-8 in our favour. Batley might easily have won in the closing stages, but they made a mess of a fine chance for crossing near the posts. Our scorers were Mills, Spencer and Talbot, 1 try each, and Bowkett 1 goal.

Are you waiting until you have a lump sum before you think of investing? Remember, lump sums have a way of melting—before or as soon as you get them—in unforeseen expenses. A little a week is the way to safety and happy independence. Even half-a-crown, properly invested, can begin at once to earn excellent rates of interest, paid free of income tax. Your money can steadily make more money in absolute security. And you can withdraw your capital any time you like. Grow richer day by day. Send for the Huddersfield Investment Book—now!
