OFFICIAL PROGRAMME OF THE LEEDS FOOTBALL CLUB

Fortieth Year

Saturday, October 29th, 1949

Club Notes.

TO-DAY'S FINAL. The Final of the Yorkshire County Challenge Cup Competition to be played at Headingley to-day promises to be a classical encounter with two of the best sides in the county engaged. If the weather conditions are kind to us, this match should be a Rugby League treat—what better final could be imagined than a match between the Rugby League Champions (Huddersfield) and the Rugby League Cup holders (Bradford Northern). Each of the opposing sides possess class players in similar positions:—

Pat Devery (Australian 1946 Test Captain) will play at left centre-three-quarter for Huddersfield and captain the side; whilst Ernest Ward (Great Britain Test Captain, 1948) will play at left centre-three-quarter and captain Bradford Northern.

At stand-off half-back, the elusive artist Willie Davies (1946 Australian tourist) of Bradford Northern will oppose the sure tackling aggressive Russell Pepperell (1950 Australian Tour candidate) of Huddersfield.

Two stars of 1946 Australian Tour will be in opposition at second forward—Ike Owens (Huddersfield) and Trevor Foster (Bradford Northern).

An interesting duel should take place at prop forward, where Meek, Huddersfield's Welsh International forward may find himself up against a tough customer in Eric Day, of Bradford Northern, who was born in Canada. Eric Day's rugby career is most unique. In fact, it is reported that this player is believed to be the only man who has played in all four codes of rugby, i.e., (a) League, (b) Union, (c) Canadian, (d) American Grid Iron.

Two tour aspirants will be opposed at loose forward in Ken Traill, of Bradford Northern and "Paddy" Valentine (1948 Test Player), of Huddersfield.

Finally, Batten (1946 Rugby League Australian Tourist), of Bradford, will renew his tussle with Cooper (1946 Australian Test Star).

Never was a more perfect setting than the above with this galaxy of stars in personal opposition. The stage is set and may the stars live up to their reputations.

The Yorkshire County Committee has followed the lead of the Lancashire County Committee and departed from previous practice by appointing a referee from their own county to be in charge of to-day's game. To-day's referee is Mr. W. Hemmings, of Halifax, one of Yorkshire's senior officials.

The Lord Mayor and Lady Mayoress of the City of Leeds have been invited to be present at to-day's match.

The cup will be presented to the captain of the winning side by the wife of the President of the Yorkshire County Committee, Mr. W. Hemmings.

The Newark Imperial Band will play selections before the match and during the interval.
