rare appearances at Fartown, and most of the faces in their team will be new ones to us.

Two visitors who should feel at home are Hirst and Winkworth. The latter played with us a few seasons ago and we have been pleased to hear of the progress he has made since his transfer to Swinton. Hubert Hirst is a Huddersfield youth and has played in the local League.

Two of the men who took the "Lions" into the Top Four will be absent today. Hooker Frank Osmond is on his way to Australia and leading try-scorer Chris. Coburn is out of action with a fractured fore-arm.

Our visitors' captain, Welsh International full back Ralph Morgan, is among the players who have reached the century of goals this season. He will be looking for a chance to add to his total today!

Swinton will not wish us to give them a lengthy reminder of their last visit to Fartown, for on that occasion they lost to the tune of 76 points to 3. There is hardly likely to be a repetition of that score. Of the team that won such an overwhelming victory, only Russell Pepperell and Bawden (who played right and left wing respectively) are on our team sheet this afternoon. Swinton's Knowles will remember the match—he was carried off with a leg injury in the first half.

The "Lions", we hear, have had a few days at Fylde as preparation for this Semi-final. Our own training has consisted mainly of the usual routine but our team are none the less keen or fit on this account. Only this afternoon's game stands between Devery and his men and the right to battle again for the League Championship Cup. Come on, Fartown!

Into Retirement
After our last Programme went to press the announcement of Stanley Pepperell's retirement was made public. We cannot allow this occasion to pass without adding a word of praise to this stout-hearted Cumbrian and loyal servant of the Fartown Club. The elder "Pep" donned our first team jersey on exactly 300 occasions and passed the century mark in both tries and goals. But apart from figures he always was, in victory or defeat, a fine example to his team-mates. It was fitting that Stanley should be chosen by Cumberland during his sixteenth season of R.L. football, and the news of his injury in a second team game came as a blow. "Well played, Pep." We can imagine you will find it difficult to be content with a place in the stand.

Here and There

An aggregate total of close upon 400,000 spectators have attended our 22 first team home games this season.

Work on our football pitch will be started first thing on Monday morning.

Only Bradford Northern and Dewsbury have been successful at Fartown this season. We mustn't let Swinton's name be added!

Honours List

The following Fartowners played for their country or county during the season:

- W. M. Banks—Wales.
- J. Bawden—Cumberland.
- L. W. Cooper—Other Nationalities.
- J. C. Daly—Other Nationalities.
- P. C. Devery—Other Nationalities.
- J. C. Hunter—Other Nationalities.
- R. Nicholson—Cumberland.
- G. R. Pepperell—England & Cumberland.
- S. V. Pepperell—Cumberland.
- R. S. Robson—Other Nationalities.
- D. D. Valentine—Other Nationalities.
- G. Wilson—Other Nationalities.

Note—"Ike" Owens was selected for Wales but declined the invitation. Glyn Morgan was on our books when he played for Wales v. France.
